Candidate Campaign Information Pack
Education Welfare Officer

(Cork, Bray & Dublin Only)

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Education Welfare Officer (Cork, Bray & Dublin Only).

This Candidate Pack includes the following information:

- Full and detailed Job Specification and important dates to note.
- Recruitment Process detail and important dates to note.
- Candidate General Declaration

Please ensure that you read this Campaign Information Pack in detail and that you fully understand the process. Candidate Information Pack - Recruitment Process

For any informal enquiries regarding the position and job specification please contact: Nuala Colton, Nuala.Colton@tusla.ie / 087 924 8362.

Should you have any specific queries in relation to the recruitment process please contact the Tusla Recruitment team via: RecruitCorpoNat@tusla.ie or Tusla Recruit Campaign Manager: Rory Power, rory.power@tusla.ie / 087 774 5036.

Kind Regards,
Tusla Recruitment Team

An Ghníomhaireacht um Leanaí agus an Teaghlach
Child and Family Agency

Job Specification

Job Title, Grade and Grade Code	Education Welfare Officer (Cork, Bray & Dublin Only) Grade Code: Q142
Campaign Reference Approval Code	TRCORP20262324, TRCORP20262494, TRCORP20262262 & TRCORP20262314
Applications considered Via	Tusla Recruit Portal only
Opening date for Applications	Thursday, 19th November 2026
Closing Date for Applications	12 noon, Monday 7th December 2026
Proposed Interview date(s)	December 2026 / January 2027 - may be subject to change based on volume of candidates and availability of Service resources.
Contact for Informal Enquiries	Nuala Colton, Nuala.Colton@tusla.ie / 087 924 8362 Making an informal enquiry gives you the opportunity to ask questions about the campaign and job specification. This informal enquiry contact is available only for the duration of the application process.
Location of Post	The are four initial vacancies that are based in: Cork, Bray & Dublin. However, the initial assignment will be confirmed upon appointment. A panel may be created from which permanent and specified purpose vacancies of full or part time duration will be filled in Cork, Bray & Dublin. For Tusla Regions & Networks please check the following link: https://www.tusla.ie/get-in-touch/local-area-offices/
Details of Service	The Child and Family Agency was established on 1st January 2014 and is responsible for a range of statutory functions including provision of child protection, alternative care, specified regulatory services and a range of family support services. The Agency has commenced a major improvement programme with significant focus on Practice, Culture and Structure. The Agency currently has responsibility for a budget of circa €1.2billion and delivers its services through over 5,500 people in 259 locations across the Country.

	The Child and Family Agency has responsibility for the following range of services: • Child Protection and Welfare • Parenting, Family Support and Early Help Services • Alternative Care • Birth Information & Tracing and Adoption • Tusla Education Support Services (TESS) • Children's Service Regulation • Counselling and Therapeutic Supports Further information is available on www.tusla.ie The Educational Welfare Officer (EWO) is responsible for delivering services to children, parents, young people and others. In fulfilling the role, the EWO will work collaboratively with the HSCL, SCP services strands, schools and other agencies in meeting the educational welfare needs of children and young people.
Purpose of Role	The Educational Welfare Officer will deliver educational welfare services for Tusla as detailed in The Education (Welfare) Act, 2000, the Education Act, 1998, and the Child and Family Agency Act, 2013, assisting schools, students and parents to comply with their legal obligations in accordance with best practice and under the direction of the Agency and its management. EWOs employ a supportive and welfare oriented approach in the interests of the children and young people who do not attend school regularly, working collaboratively with parents/guardians, schools and other agencies in meeting the needs of the children and the young people concerned.
Reporting Relationship	The EWO will carry out his/her duties in accordance with best practice and under the direction of a Senior Educational Welfare Officer (SEWO).
Duties and Responsibilities	Main Duties and Responsibilities • Foster an appreciation of the value of education and regular school attendance among pupils, their families and communities. • Assist and advise parents whose children experience school attendance difficulties. • Build positive working relationships with children and families through home visits, arranging support meetings in schools and submitting referrals to other relevant support services, as required. • Encourage, advise and assist schools in developing school attendance strategies, codes of behaviour and other policies which will create school cultures that encourage children to attend school regularly. • Agree with schools, necessary protocols for the management of school attendance and referral arrangements in accordance with guidelines that may be laid down at national level. • Deal with poor attendance case referrals from schools using a welfare-orientated approach with the families involved as the most effective means of ensuring satisfactory school attendance by the child. • Assist in tracking and identifying children who drop out of education using interaction with the families involved to encourage and assist the children in returning to education. • Take all possible steps to arrange education for children not currently in receipt of education. • Support parents wishing to submit appeals in relation to enrolment, expulsion or suspensions decisions by schools. • Inspect school registers and attendance records to ensure that they comply with relevant requirements. • Co-operate with other agencies concerned with child welfare. • Deal with queries from schools, parents and the public concerning the Educational (Welfare) Act, 2000, and school attendance issues. • Initiate legal proceedings under the Act, where appropriate. • Prepare and submit reports as required. • Carry out all functions necessary for the implementation of the Ac • The role may involve considerable travel, full drivers licence and access to transport is essential to complete the duties of the role. • Participate in training and development programmes as prescribed by the Agency. • Participate in integrated working with colleagues in the other EWS work strands namely: Home School Community Liaison (HSCL) Coordinators and School Completion Programme (SCP) staff. • Support the implementation of the SCP Intake Framework by participating in SCP Referral Meetings and by making referrals to SCP when the EWO deems such a referral beneficial to a student. • Any other duties which may be assigned from time to time. Health & Safety • Comply with and contribute to the development of policies, procedures, guidelines and safe professional practice and adhere to relevant legislation, regulations and standards. • Have a working knowledge of the Health Information and Quality Authority (HIQA) Standards as they apply to the service for example National Standards for Child Protection and Care and comply with associated Tusla – Child and Family Agency protocols for implementing and maintaining these standards as appropriate to the role. • To support, promote and actively participate in sustainable energy, water and waste initiatives to create a more sustainable, low carbon and efficient health service. The above Job Description is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all duties involved and consequently, the post holder may be required to perform other duties as appropriate to the post which may be assigned to him/her from time to time and to contribute to the development of the post while in office.

Eligibility Criteria Qualifications and / or Experience	Applicants must by the closing date of application have the following: • Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI) Level 8 (or higher) major academic award (or equivalent qualification recognised and accredited in Ireland) in health, education, arts, humanities, psychology, social science, youth or community areas. • A minimum of three years' relevant experience in paid employment delivering services to vulnerable Children and Families. Relevant experience must include evidence of a minimum of three years' front line direct work with vulnerable or at risk children and families. (Applicants must demonstrate and outline this experience in their completed applications.) • Requisite knowledge and ability for the proper discharge of the duties of the office Health A candidate for and any person holding the office must be fully competent and capable of undertaking the duties attached to the office and be in a state of health such as would indicate a reasonable prospect of ability to render regular and efficient service. Character Each candidate for and any person holding the office must be of good character.
Skills, competencies and/or knowledge	Tusla Leadership Competency Framework The Tusla Leadership Competency Framework describes the behaviours that are key to Tusla colleagues being effective in the execution of their role at all levels within the Agency. The competencies and associated behavioural descriptors, capture the transversal knowledge, skills, abilities and other characteristics that will enable colleagues, regardless of role or rank, to be effective in their work. The Tusla Leader Framework relevant for this role is Leading Others Please access this Leading Others link to fully familiarise yourself with the impact of this Leading Others proficiency for Tusla. The Competency of Professional Knowledge is specifically linked to the duties, responsibilities and criteria for this role.
Other requirements of the role	• The post holder will require a current driving licence and access to appropriate transport as the post will involve travel. • Have awareness of children and young people's participatory practice
Application Process Campaign Specific Selection Process	The online application system has a time out facility, this is in order to protect the privacy of the user. This time out facility activates if the application has been 'dormant' for over 60 minutes. Any work not saved will be lost if the system times out due to lack of activity. As

Shortlisting / Interview	such please ensure to save your application as you work on it, any lost data cannot be recovered. It might be an idea for candidates to work on their applications outside of the system and copy and paste their answers into the online application forms once they are fully complete and submit then. Once your application is fully submitted you will receive a confirmation email to your profile. If you do not receive this email, your application HAS NOT been submitted and received and you should log back on to submit fully. AI generated content must not be used in your application. Tusla reserves the right to assess if content in applications is likely created by AI in part or in whole. Use of AI may result in disqualification and exclusion from the recruitment process. Short listing may be carried out on the basis of information supplied in your application. The criteria for short listing are based on the requirements of the post as outlined in the eligibility criteria and skills, competencies and/or knowledge section of this job specification. Therefore, it is very important that you think about your experience in light of those requirements. Failure to include information regarding these requirements may result in you not being called forward to the next stage of the selection process. Those successful at the shortlisting stage of this process (where applied) will be called forward to interview. Please ensure that you read this Campaign Information Pack in detail and that you fully understand the process. Candidate Information Pack - Recruitment Process
Code of Practice	The Recruitment Service Child and Family Agency will run this campaign in compliance with the Code of Practice prepared by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (CPSA). The Code of Practice sets out how the core principles of probity, merit, equity and fairness might be applied on a principle basis. The Code also specifies the responsibilities placed on candidates, facilities for feedback to applicants on matters relating to their application when requested, and outlines procedures in relation to requests for a review of the recruitment and selection process and review in relation to allegations of a breach of the Code of Practice. Codes of practice are published by the CPSA and are available on www.cpsa.ie. Tusla Child and Family Agency is an Equal Opportunities Employer. Tusla Child and Family Agency recognises its responsibilities under the Data Protection Acts 2003 - 2018 and the Freedom of Information Act 2014
The Integrated Reform Programme is a significant initiative being undertaken by Tusla to improve the way in which we deliver our services to children and families. Tusla has designed a consistent regional structure to ensure this equitable provision of services and as part of this design Tusla is moving from 17 areas to 30 networks. The initial assignment will be for Corporate/National. It is important to note that this is an initial assignment and maybe subject to change in line with the Integrated reform process. The Integrated Reform Programme may also impact on duties of this role as structures change, and you will be notified of same as the programme progresses as appropriate to this role.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review with the employee concerned.

Tusla values individual's rights and freedoms in respect of privacy and fully complies with the requirements of the Data Protection Act 2018.

All roles within Tusla carry responsibility towards the protection of personal and sensitive data.

Tenure	The current vacancies available are permanent/temporary and whole time. The post is pensionable. A panel may be created from which permanent and specified purpose vacancies of full or part time duration will be filled. The tenure of these posts will be indicated at "expression of interest" stage for each individual post. The purpose of this campaign is to fill immediate urgent vacancies and it is expected that panel placements will cease if expressions are not received within the appropriate processes. Appointment as an employee of the Child & Family Agency is governed by the Child and Family Agency Act, 2013 and the Public Service Management (Recruitment and Appointments) Act 2004.
Remuneration	The salary scale for the whole time equivalent of this post is: 01/06/2026: €47,801, €49,996, €52,277, €54,631, €57,058, €59,558, €62,050, €63,969, €65,893, €66,461, €67,027, €69,716, €72,405, €73,811 LSI LSIs (Long Service Increments) are represented by emboldened figures. 1st LSI is paid after 3 years on the max, the 2nd LSI after 3 years on LSI1, and the 3rd LSI after 3 years on the 2nd LSI (where applicable). The appointee shall commence on the first point of the salary scale. Incremental credit may be given on appointment for certain types of relevant experience- more information available in Appendix 5. Candidate Information Pack - Recruitment Process Candidates should note that entry will be at the minimum point of the scale and will not be subject to negotiation, and the rate of remuneration may be adjusted from time to time in line with Government pay policy. Different terms and conditions may apply if the appointee is currently a serving civil or public servant.
Working Week	The standard working week applying to the whole time equivalent of this post is:

	35 hours.
Annual Leave	The annual leave associated with the whole time equivalent of this post is 29 days per annum.
Superannuation	This is a pensionable position with Tusla. The successful candidate will upon appointment become a member of the appropriate pension scheme. Pension scheme membership will be notified within the contract of employment.
Probation	A probation period of 39 weeks, or proportion of same for fixed term /specified purpose contracts, where applicable shall apply from the commencement of employment, during which the contract may be terminated by either party in accordance with this contract. The probationary period may be extended at the discretion of management by a further 9 weeks or proportion of same for fixed term/specified purpose contracts, where applicable. Confirmation of appointment as a permanent member of staff is subject to the successful completion of the probationary period, for permanent contracts. Where you have already completed a probationary period with the Child and Family Agency, Health Service Executive, Local Authority, and there is no break in service, no period of probation applies.
Responsibilities under Children First National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017)	The safety and welfare of children and young people is a key priority for Tusla – Child and Family Agency. All employees of Tusla are required to be vigilant to any concerns regarding the protection and welfare of children and to bring them to the attention of the Tusla Designated Person in a timely manner, in keeping with the Tusla – Child and Family Agency Child Protection policies.
National Standards for Children and Family Services	Employees must have a working knowledge of HIQA Standards (https://www.hiqa.ie/areas-we-work/childrens-services) and / or the Adoption Authority of Ireland Standards as they apply to the role. All Employees must be aware of their responsibilities under Children First National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children (2017)
Ethics in Public Office 1995 and 2001 Positions remunerated at or above the minimum point of the Grade VIII salary scale NOTE THIS SECTION REFERS TO POSTS AT €82,258 PLUS	Positions remunerated at or above the minimum point of the Grade VIII salary scale are designated positions under Section 18 of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995. Any person appointed to a designated position must comply with the requirements of the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001 as outlined below. A) In accordance with Section 18 of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995, a person holding such a post is required to prepare and furnish an annual statement of any interests which could materially influence the performance of the official functions of the post. This annual statement of interest should be submitted to the Chief Executive not later than 31st January in the following year. B) In addition to the annual statement, a person holding such a post is required, whenever they are performing a function as an employee of Tusla and have actual knowledge, or a connected person, has a material interest in a matter to which the function relates, provide at the time a statement of the facts of that interest. A person holding such a post should provide such statement to the Chief Executive.

	The function in question cannot be performed unless there are compelling reasons to do so and, if this is the case, those compelling reasons must be stated in writing and must be provided to the Chief Executive. C) A person holding such a post is required under the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001 to act in accordance with any guidelines or advice published or given by the Standards in Public Office Commission. Guidelines for public servants on compliance with the provisions of the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001 are available on the Standards Commission's website http://www.sipo.gov.ie/